TO MOBILIZE TROOPS IN 24 HOURS IF RUSSIA DOES NOT CEASE ACTIVITY

GERMANY, WITH MOBILIZATION ORDERS ALREADY DRAWN, WILL TAKE THIS STEP

KAISER HOLDS BACK WAVE

Pledges to Russia That Austria Would Guarantee Territorial Integrity of Servia.

24 HOURS TO BRING CRISIS

First Advance of Austrian Troops Across Danube Would Force Czar Nicholas' Hand.

Berlin, Germany, July 29.—The rumor received official confirmation tonight that the Russian army is partially mobilized on the Austrian and German frontiers. The chief advisors of the Czar were immediately called into conference.

BULLETIN (3:30 P. M.)

(By United Press.)
Berlin, Germany, July 29.—From the highest official source it was learned this evening that a break between Germany and Russia is impending. The impression is abroad that the Kaiser's negotiations with the Czar failed. A serious aspect of the situation was taken at the foreign office. It is admitted frankly that the crisis has been reached and that the situation is growing more desperate hourly.

RUSSIA MUST STOP.

(By United Press.)
Berlin, Germany, July 29.—Mobilization orders will be issued by Germany within twenty-four hours unless Russia ceases her military activity. This was the statement of a high government official to the United Press this evening.

ARE NULLIFIED BY RUSSIA

Efforts of Kaiser to Localize War Are Being Spoiled.

(By United Press.)

Frankfort, Germany, July 29.—Efforts of the Kaiser to localize the Austro-Servian war are being nullified by extensive movements of Russia, according to a Berlin dispatch published in an extra edition of the Gazette late today. The publication is evidently inspired for the government often uses this paper in issuing semi-official news. The dispatch declares conditions are rapidly becoming worse.

event Russia holds aloof and makes localization of the war possible. The Kaiser and the Czar have been in constant communication for 24 hours.

Kaiser Wilhelm's hand holds back the titanic war wave which menaces all Europe. Austria has not struck the first blow in any concerted campaign and no Austrian troops have set foot in Servia so far as can be learned. The report is that the Kaiser has ordered Franz Joseph to do nothing until Germany gives the word.

The Kaiser has forbidden all demonstrations of warlike nature. War news is suppressed in the press. The first advance of the Austrian forces across the Danube would force Russia's hand. The Czar would mobilize and a general European war would be imminent.

Official circles believed this evening 24 hours would bring the crisis. Pessimism reigned here tonight over possibilities of a peaceful settlement.

MUST GO BACK TO MADISON

D. Boone Thorpe, Released From Poor Farm, Causes Trouble.

Daniel Boone Thorpe is in again. This time he will likely be taken back to the Madison insane asylum. Thorpe left the county poor farm last Sunday and the next thing heard from him he was in Homer again creating a disturbance. Sheriff Cavitt was called there last night when the sheriff arrived Thorpe had left, evidently being wise enough to know that the sheriff was on the way. Sheriff Cavitt found Thorpe between Homer and Arlington. Thorpe was recently released from Madison and will again be taken there.

CASE ENDS WITH 7 PAYING FINES

Agreement Reached Whereby Charges of Gaming and Visiting House Against Other 10 Are Dismissed.

GUILTY PLEAS ARE ENTERED

The cases against the seventeen men found last week at the home of Charles Perkins, ended suddenly this morning when it was agreed that seven of the number should plead guilty and the charges against the rest should be dropped.

Charles Perkins, John Beale, P. A. Miller, John Wolter, Albert Sorrell and Bert Osborne paid fines of five dollars and costs to Mayor Bebout on charges of gaming and Elmer Hendricks was fined $10 and costs on the charge of visiting. The other cases were dismissed on motion of Prosecutor Smith.

The cases were originally set for nine o'clock this morning and then postponed until one o'clock this afternoon. Shortly after Mayor Bebout had left the office he was notified that an agreement had been reached whereby part of the men plead guilty and save the trouble of trying all of them. The state believed this was best as the men stood a chance of beating the case, and the way it was settled the state was winner without a fight.

BOOTLEGGING CASE POSTPONED TODAY

Two Material Witnesses For Defense in Charles Sweet's Trial, it is Stated.

BENNETT'S TRIAL TONIGHT

The case against Charles Sweet, charged with "bootlegging," which was set for this afternoon before Mayor Bebout, was postponed until Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the request of the attorney for the defendant. It was stated that two important witnesses for the defense could not be found and the continuance was granted. One of the witnesses is known to be out of the city and the whereabouts of the other is not known. Mayor Bebout will hear the case Monday whether the witnesses are here or not.

The trial of Willard Bennett on a similar charge will be held tonight at seven-thirty o'clock. Both men are implicated in the alleged sale of some whiskey to Henry Graham.

300 BABIES ARE ELIGIBLE

There Are That Many in Rush County Between 1 and 2 Years Who May be Entered in Contest.

MEDALS AWARDED AT FAIR

Not Prettiest Baby Will Win, But One Which Scores Highest on Five Tests to be Applied.

The agricultural fairs, which are responsible for raising the standard of farm life and for standardizing stock, grain and farm products in general, have taken up a new line of work. They are improving a farm product that has been, in a way, sadly neglected,—the farm baby. Incidentally, they are giving the town and city baby a helping hand, and they are doing it all through what is known as a better babies contest. One will be held in connection with the Rush county fair this year, August 25 to 28.

A year ago the Woman's Home Companion, a magazine which reaches many classes of mothers, started what it termed a better babies bureau, the object of which was to spread over the United States a desire for race betterment by a scientific examination of babies through a series of mental and physical tests.

The publishers realized that the best way to preach the gospel was through the state and county fairs where so many mothers meet. The contest was taken up last year by 300 fairs and a hundred thousand babies were examined. This year the contest is being held in twice that many places and more than three hundred thousand babies are already entered.

The contest here will not be in the hands of the fair officials, as is done elsewhere, but has been turned over to the Parent-teachers association of the Graham school, which organization gladly accepted the offer to carry out the contest because many women of the organization know of the great success such contests proved to be where they were held last year.

The babies will be entered just as any exhibit is entered at any agricultural fair, but with the exception that the judges will be Rushville physicians and the babies will not be on exhibition at the fair until the examining, the comparing, the scoring and the judging are all done and everything is over except the distribution of the medals and the awarding of the prizes.

The examination, which is the real work and purpose of the contest, will take place the week preceding the fair, August 19, at the Graham school building. This examination is open only to mothers who have entered their children. No one else will be admitted to the building that day except the examining physicians, the trained nurses, and a scoring and reception committee to be named from the Parent-teachers association of this school.

This year, the contest being new, only children between the ages of one and two inclusive will be entered for examination. There are about three hundred of this age in Rush county. The parent-teachers association will make an effort in the next few days to reach every mother who has a child within this age limit and invite her to enter the baby in this contest.

The examinations will be made by some of Rushville's leading physicians. At the examination the babies will be cared for by four graduates of the Rushville hospital.

AWARDS SEVERAL YEAR CONTRACTS

City Council Gives Job of Supplying Electric Bulbs to Fostoria Lamp Company.

SAME AS GENERAL ELECTRIC

Remonstrance Against Paving West End of Street Sustained—No paving This Year.

The city council met in special session last night and awarded contracts for a year's supply of coal, and several other things necessary at the water and light plant. There was no argument or fight for any of the contracts except that of furnishing the city with its supply of electric bulbs.

Three firms bid for the contract of supplying the city with electric lights for a year. The General Electric company, represented by Phillip Miller and the Fostoria Lamp company, represented by the Mahin Electrical company, submitted practically the same bid. The other bidder was the Capp Plumbing and Electrical company. The council, on advice of Superintendent Mahin, refused to consider the bid of the Capp Plumbing company because he considered the lamp this firm was bidding on an inferior lamp.

After considerable debate the council voted to accept the contract of the Mahin Electrical company. The contract calls for $300 in lamps and the more the council uses the cheaper they are. The two companies bid on what are called standard lamps and Albert Capp of the Capp Plumbing and Electrical company told the council he was aware that he was backing the trust but thought his lamp as good as any. Superintendent Mahin recommended the Fostoria lamp and this is the one that was taken.

The contract for coal was awarded to the Marmet-Halm Coal and Coke company of Cincinnati. The contract price was $2.20 a ton. This is the same company that had the contract last year. Twelve bids were received offering to supply the city with coal. The Marmet-Halm company received the contract because of the low freight rate between here and Cincinnati. The rate per ton is sixty cents.

The Fort Wayne electrical works was given the contract of supplying the city with electrical meters for the coming year. The Indianapolis Electrical Supply company was the only other bidder.

West Second street, from Buena Vista avenue to the Pennsylvania railroad, will not be paved this year although the improvement is bound to come sooner or later. A remonstrance was presented against the proposed paving and the council sustained the remonstrance. A number of the names on the remonstrance were not resident property owners. The council understood that there were only five resident property owners on the street and three of these were on the remonstrance and for this reason it was sustained. There were no remonstrance against the preliminary assessment role of the East Seventh street sidewalk improvement and the assessment role was adopted as prepared by the civil engineer.

ALL SET FOR THE FIRST GUN

Chautauqua is Ready for Opening Next Sunday Afternoon at 2 O'clock at Coliseum

"SILENT ZONE" ESTABLISHED

Children in Flower Growing Contest Are Urged to Bring Flowers to Coliseum Thursday at 9 A. M.

Interest centers all over Rush county in the coming annual Rush county chautauqua which opens in the Coliseum in the city park next Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Practically every detail has been attended to at the park and everything is in readiness for the "first curtain" so to speak.

A new plan will be tried by the chautauqua management this year which is expected to be a boon to persons in the Coliseum who would like to hear the program, and at the same time no hardship will be worked on any one. A so-called "silent zone" will be established around the Coliseum to prevent children from playing too near the Coliseum while programs are in progress and thus disturb persons in the Coliseum.

The city park has been fenced as usual, but inside is another fence which extends about the Coliseum about thirty feet from each side. "Silent zones" are in vogue at practically every chautauqua and the management here feels that this is the proper step in that it offers the best possible way to stop disturbances on the outside while the programs are being given. There is ample room in the park for all the children to play.

Special interest attaches to the flower growing contest which will be held in connection with the chautauqua under the direction of the Rushville Social Service and Civic Improvement association. A similar contest was held last year for the first time and was an unqualified success. Plans were slightly changed this year.

Instead of awarding a series of prizes for the whole city, the city was divided into four districts and in each one of these a first and second prize will be awarded. This prevents all possibility of the same child winning all the prizes and makes the competition even keener.

The prizes in the flower growing contest will be awarded Thursday

What Became of Those Window Cards Advertising Chautauqua?

The Chamber of Commerce today gave out the following concerning chautauqua window cards:

Most of the residents of Rushville approve of the Chautauqua, and the business men all seem to be strongly in favor of it, most of them helping by guaranteeing the sale of a certain number of season tickets. So far, so good. But the advertising is a very necessary part of the work to make it a success. Would it be logical to destroy all advertising as soon as printed, or keep silence as to the benefits to be derived from this institution?

Cards were given all or most of the merchants to display in their windows till Chautauqua time. Where are they? We have seen a few still peeping at the crowds from more or less conspicuous places in the windows, but the greater number of these cards seem to have gone the way of all flesh, and are no more. When the windows were last dressed, we take it that the cards were not replaced in the windows. They ought to be resurrected and put where they can be seen, or if lost, more ought to be secured and displayed. These cards are not an eye sore, but are rather a credit to the community and the live merchant who thus assists in a material way the best enterprise Rushville ever had in the way of entertainment and popular education.

Don't be a Goop. Hunt them up and display them till the end of the Chautauqua, or place them in a more conspicuous position. They will increase the crowds, and help our community. There are still some people, even in Rush county who have not yet had the value of Chautauqua brought to their minds. We have heard several people mention this neglect. Let us all get busy.

Militant Suffragettes

One of the interesting developments of last month was the appeal of the British Government to the newspapers not to print so much about the "suffragettes."

It was the Government's acknowledgement of the newspaper's power to arouse and hold public attention.

People mechanically are attracted to names they see in the paper.

Wise advertisers use this power constructively. They create desire and transform desire into a demand for their products.

They find newspapers the best advertising medium because they reach the popular purse-string.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Amusements

Tonight, The Gem will show a tremendous three part melodrama, "The Triumph of Mind", featuring Phillips Smalley, Lois Weber, and Rupert Julian, and it deals directly along the line of thought. Circumstantial evidence says a man shall die. Mental science steps up to the jury, and delivers a knockout blow with a fist labeled "psychic phenomena"—and the man goes free. Now there is no effort in this play to carry the spectator into deep water of psychology. But on the other hand, it is going to make him think a bit, aside from giving him some pretty big thrills, what with the vivid, human-interest story it tells. It is a play of today in its settings, in its characters and their mortal passion and weaknesses. But it is a story of tomorrow so far as the theories are concerned, which may in the near future be facts.

Tomorrow, Cleo Madison will be featured in a classy comedy "The Strenuous Life." Friday, a very strong program will be given, J. Warren Kerrigan in "The Sheep Herder" and King Baggot in "A Mexican Warrior."

The Princess will show the fourth episode of "The Perils of Pauline" for the first picture tonight. Pearl White and Crane Wilbur as usual are featured and the picture tells a thrilling story. It is a continuation of the other pictures but it is a complete story in itself. One of the thrilling scenes shows an explosion which wrecks a yacht. The other is a comedy entitled "Dorothy Danesbridge, Militant." Dorothy Kelley and James Morrison are featured. Tomorrow night the two reel feature "Etta of the Footlights" with Maurice Costello and Mary Charleson will be shown.

What We Are Missing.

The Indianapolis Star today contains a picture of the proposed Carnegie library which will be built at Thornton, Boone county, at a cost of ten thousand dollars. It will have a 9,000 volume capacity, township and committee rooms and an assembly room.

Thorntown, according to the latest census, has 1,508 souls. Rushville is almost four times as large, but it is content to have its library couped up in the court house where conveniences, which might be obtained with small exertion, are lacking.

With small exertion Rushville could obtain a library better than Thorntown's, and in the same way.

The cost to Rushville people would be so small, that born even by a small number, it would not be noticed. But we are content to let every city and town in eastern Indiana outstride us in this respect. Persons acquainted with towns and cities in this part of Indiana know that a circle fifty miles wide could be described with Rushville as a center, and in this imaginary circle there are very few cities or towns which do not have a respectable public library of some sort. With few exceptions they are Carnegie libraries because they can be obtained with very little expense to the community in which they are located.

Knightstown and Carthage have public libraries located in buildings built especially for the purpose and Rushville is willing to slide along with no library building and be content with something which is nothing to be compared with what we should have. Thorntown is cited as an example because it is a present case.

There is something sadly lacking in Rushville else we would have a Carnegie library. Agitation was once started for a Carnegie library—and it was not many years ago—and the necessary fund was raised.

When the question was put before the council to levy a library tax, the city attorney arose to remark that he did not favor accepting "tainted" money and that ended the controversy.

But now we have a library tax for the library which he have in the court house. A Carnegie library could be supported with a very small increase in the tax, so small in fact that it would scarcely be noticed. We need it and we should have it. It reflects nothing to the credit of Rushville that she has not a Carnegie library.

Carnegie is not going to build libraries forever. Some day there will come a close to his benevolences and Rushville will be left in the lurch. We will have to keep our library in cramped quarters in the court house or build our own building. So we had better get while the getting's good.

Nothing said here is meant to derogatory to the present library or its management. The institution is a very creditable one considering the implements with which the board has had to work. Praise is due the persons who have brought the library up to its present state of usefulness.

But how much more useful would it be were it in a beautiful building that would be a credit to the city and where there is ample room for expansion and growth?

Enthusiasm in Center.

Editor of the Republican.

I wish to answer a letter that was published July 24 in the Rushville American.

As to the Republicans of Center township not having enthusiasm and that they tried three times to hold a township convention, I wish to say that some Center township Bull Moose wrote it and that he is a Bull Moose prevaricator. We have never had a date set for the convention, but will have one. And when we do have a convention, we will nominate Republicans and not Bull Moosers. When the Bull Moosers held their convention, they nominated Republicans instead of Bull Moosers and their ticket is vacant.

The Republican party does not have to get up papers and get signers to run its business. The Republican party is together this year, and don't you forget it. That is what hurts the Bull Moose. One Bull Moose in Center took a paper to a certain man in Washington township and asked him to sign it. That man happened to be a Republican. The Bull Moose got a cool reception.

The Republicans don't get down to having Democratic aid society like the Bull Moose party and meet once a month and pay twenty-five cents a month and hire Albert J. Beveridge to come down here and tell us some stuff that is not so. The aid society had better save its money and pay Albert's back taxes or he might not get to vote. Just keep your eye on the score board on election day and see who will live, Republican or Bull Moose. Yours respectively, of the chautauqua, in the afternoon, at four o'clock immediately after the regular program ends. All children entered in the contest are asked to bring their flowers to the Coliseum Thursday morning at nine o'clock. All lovers of flowers are urged to bring cut flowers to decorate the stage so that it can be made especially beautiful for this day.

The city is divided into districts as follows: all north and east of Perkins street and the C. H. & D. railroad; all between Perkins and Harrison streets and north of the C. H. & D.; all west of Harrison street and north of the C. H. & D.; all south of the C. H. & D.

Indications are that several neighboring chautauquas will be represented here at the invitational meeting August 4 when Lyceum bureau managers will come to present their talent for next year. A member of the local committee suggested that the officials of the Columbus, Seymour, Connersville, Greensburg, Shelbyville and Richmond chautauquas be asked to meet here with the local committee when the bureau managers come and consider a plan of buying talent together so that all the advantages of the circuit chautauqua may be gained and still retain the valuable points of an independent chautauqua. Columbus will send one and possibly two representatives and Connersville will be represented in all probability. It is doubtful whether Richmond will take part in the meeting.

BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK

Look young! Nobody can tell if you use Grandmother's simple recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe for about 50 cents.

Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy.

Water Competition of Amateur Athletic Union Opens Three Days Meet in Indianapolis.

IS HELD AT BROAD RIPPLE

Illinois Team is Picked as Winner—Several Records Are Expected to be Smashed.

(By United Press.)

Indianapolis, Ind., July 29.—With the world's greatest swimmers gathered at the Broad Ripple swimming pool here today for the three-day carnival of the Central Amateur Athletic Union's championship water competition, critics predicted at the opening that the meet would excel all former ones in records established. The pool is one of the largest open air tanks in the country. It is large enough to allow fast work in the dashes, and as there is no current to hinder, the broad breasted men who represent all the best swimming clubs in the country feel that they should break old records.

The Illinois Athletic club's team, said by many to be composed of the best swimmers in the United States, is picked as the winner in team competition. The Chicago Athletic Association team is here to give their old rivals a stern trial. Other well known clubs entered are Cleveland Athletic club, Cincinnati Gymnasium and Athletic club, Northwestern University and the Culver Military academy team. In addition are a host of local swimmers and many famous swimmers from various parts who are unattached. Among these are several women from the east who are entered in events for their sex.

Attention centered today on the members of the I. A. A. team. Raithel, the sprinter, was expected to win the 50 and 100-yard events. Harry Heber, champion back stroke swimmer, is expected to take that event. McDermott is entered in long distance swims where his powerful breast stroke will be seen. McGilvray is entered in the middle and long distance events. Billy Merriman of the I. A. C. a local boy, was a favorite with the crowds in the galleries.

The tank, which is 202 by 500 ft. in dimensions, has been filled with clear-cold spring water and is most invigorating. It has been measured by properly constituted officials so that any records set will stand. It is surrounded by galleries ample to care for the crowd.

The program for today includes the fifty-yard swim, free style; 440-yard swim, free style; plunge for distance and 150-yard race, back stroke style. Tomorrow will see competition in the 100 and 980-yard swims, free style; 220 yard breast stroke style swim, fancy diving from a ten-foot board and water polo played under the new international rules.

Four events are carded for the last day—the 220-yard free style swim, high diving from sixteen and twenty-seven foot boards, one mile free style swim and 400-yard relay race for teams of four men.

Six events are included in the Indiana state senior championships, two each day of the three. Two races, the fifty and 100-yard free style swim, will be contested for the city championship and the same distances will be covered by women swimmers in their part of the program. Five events are listed for the state junior championships and three are for the juvenile swimmers, those under 14 years of age.

ated trained nurse. The examination will be on five tests, which include the entire mental and physical development of the child. Beauty will not be considered. You may have the prettiest baby in Indiana, but if it does not score high on five tests, it will not receive a medal.

Score cards will be furnished each mother whose child is examined. These cards will show the mental and physical standing of the child as compared with the normal. If there is a defect in vision, the card will show it; if the hearing is below normal, if dentition is imperfect, or if height and weight measurements are not what they should be, the card will show it.

Mothers of Rush county never had such an opportunity to know their children. Examinations of this nature are of incalculable value to a community, and being free of charge as they are, should be patronized by every mother who has a child within the age limit, because if continued from year to year as the Parent-teachers association expects to, it can not but help for race betterment.

Two bronze medals, gifts of the Womans Home Companion, will be awarded to the two babies who score the highest, one to the best boy baby one one to the best girl baby. The publishers of this magazine also furnish the score cards and give certificates of examination to every mother who enters her child.

The distribution of the certificates and the awarding of the medals will take place in the grand stand at the county fair Thursday morning at ten-thirty o'clock. A program fitting the occasion is being arranged for this meeting. Literature of interest to parents will be distributed. There will be informal talks on the care of the child and other numbers will make the better babies contest the real and vital feature of the fair.

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Rushville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. What other remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit?

Mrs. W. A. Wylie, 824, N. Arthur St., Rushville Ind., says: "One of the family had attacks of backache, caused by disordered kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally brought to our attention and we got a supply at Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store. Two boxes relieved him of the trouble. Our former endorsement of this remedy, still holds good."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wylie had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. (Advertisement.)

NOTICE!

After a very careful consideration we have decided to change our business on August 1st to a strictly cash system.

Our main reason for doing this is that we are anxious to furnish you goods as low or even lower than any house offering like qualities. This we fully realize is not possible under the credit system, as loss from bad accounts (which is considerable, even with the best of care) must be made good by those who pay.

There is no getting around this. Stop and think carefully if you prefer to go and pay for your accommodations and help pay for those bad accounts and the expense connected, (which are big items that must be provided for), or would you rather get the benefit of a strictly cash system, of which, as a rule, you are already able to take advantage.

GERMANY WOULD BE IN A BAD FIX

If She Takes up Arms She Can Scarcely Hope to Defeat France and Russia Both.

AUSTRIAN BARRIER BREAKING

Slav Colossus is Awakening From Its Long Sleep is Making Effort to Join Civilization.

Paris, July 29.—The great Austrian barrier which hitherto has kept back 180,000,000 Slavs from Europe is breaking down. The Slav Colossus has awakened from its long sleep and is now making frantic efforts to join the great family of civilized nations.

To endeavor to prevent the realization of the idea of this people is the dangerous, the barbarous task which Austria has taken up. She is attempting to halt the wheels of progress in order to bolster up the waning prestige of the house of Hapsburg.

Servia may have been regarded as of little importance by Vienna until now, but greater Servia is a reality, a force that cannot be destroyed, and its millions of people are distributed throughout the various Balkan countries, covering the whole territory between Belgrade and the Adriatic, while especially piled up in Bosnia, Herzegovina, the Sanjak of Novobazar, and from there southward as far as Greece.

The responsibility of attempting to prevent the progressive impetus of this people is also shared in a large measure by Germany.

George Clemenceau, former Premier of France and the greatest international statesman of Europe, said that one word from Kaiser Wilhelm to Francis Joseph would have cleared the air of the appalling incubus of a general European conflagration.

"Once blood has flowed," said Clemenceau, "Russia can no longer temporize or give Austria time to draw back, and once Russia has drawn her sword all Europe will be in arms for a work of devastation such as the world has never before witnessed."

With Russia lined up with Servia, Austria probably will be doomed to extinction as a European power. Germany thereby will lose her buffer, which heretofore has stayed off the Slav peril in the South. And Germany, if she takes a hand, can scarcely hope to defeat 4,000,000 Russian troops on the east and 1,000,000 French troops on the west.

Austria will have her hands completely occupied with the less than half million trained soldiers of Servia, fired with enthusiasm self-confidence as a result of their triumphs in the Balkan war.

Indications tonight are that both England and Italy will adopt an attitude of "watchful waiting," but President Wilson's famous formula cannot apply to France. If Germany shows her teeth to Russia this republic must go to war, and once more the dreams of the pacifists will be shattered.

Austria's hypocritical diplomacy has foiled the earnest efforts of Sir Edward Grey to bring about mediation. It has been revealed by events that whatever Servia's reply to her drastic note might have been, Austria was determined to go to war. Austria's diplomats state that their action does not mask designs for territorial expansion, but her duplicity all along makes such a protestation difficult to believe.

A Vienna dispatch, coming direct from a personage in the confidence of the Emperor Francis Joseph, states that the real motive of the war against Servia is to repair the error committed by Count Aehrenthal and to occupy the territory of the Sanjak of Novipazar, forming Austria's route of communication with the Mediterranean.

Count Von Berethold, Austrian Minister of Foreign Affairs, is carrying out the determination of the aged Emperor and of the young heir to the throne to retrieve Count Aehrenthal's blunder, even at the risk of the disintegration of the Austrian Empire in the struggle. Austria is resolved to fight on this line to a finish, regardless of the consequence to herself or to Europe.

The declaration of war by Austria automatically removes from the field of diplomacy the possibility of comprising the original cause of the present European crisis. It also transforms a situation—grave beyond any this generation has known—into a peril almost beyond calculation. It is still humanly possible that the conflict may be "localized," as the current phrase has it. In other words, it is still possible for Russia to stand aside and permit the little Slav States of Servia and Montenegro, which owe their existence to her to be worn down by the Austro-Hungarian soldiers who are already landed on Servian soil.

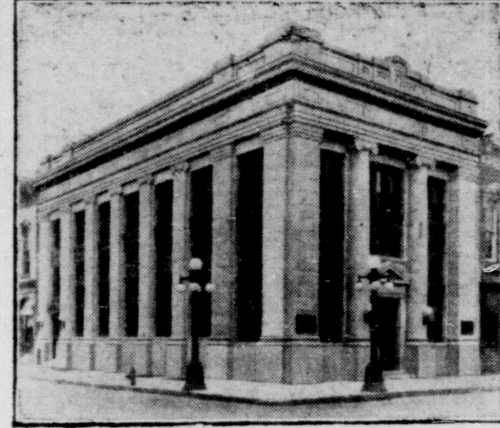

FIRST CHAUTAUQUA OPENS AT MILROY

With Weather Pleasant, Initial Assembly Was Expected to Attract Crowd First Day.

PROGRAM FOR TOMORROW

Milroy's first chautauqua opened auspiciously this afternoon. Dr. George P. Bible, head of the Pennsylvania state normal school and of the National School of Oratory, was scheduled to give a humorous lecture this afternoon on "Fads and Extremes." Tonight he will give a popular lecture on "Life and Opportunity." The Illinois glee club, a male quartet and Swiss hand bell ringers, were on the program to give the prelude both afternoon and night.

Reports came from Milroy this afternoon that there were prospects for a good crowd, with the weather pleasant. Governor Robert S. Vessey of South Dakota, will lecture tomorrow night on the subject, "Think It Over." The Play-singers, a ladies orchestra and dramatic company combined, will give a full program tomorrow afternoon and the prelude tomorrow. The first chautauqua at Milroy is expected to be a success.
